Office of Elementary and Secondary Education (OESE)

- As of January 2019, ED has consolidated OESE and the Office of Innovation and Improvement (OII) into a single office, under the title of OESE.
- “New structure will provide greater efficiency, better support, and more effective coordination to our grantees and stakeholders”
  - Streamlining our contacts with states and grantees through the new State and Grantee Relations Office;
  - Ensuring a focus on identification and dissemination of best and promising practices in the field and lessons learned from our grantees through the Office of Evidence-Based Practices;
  - Providing an opportunity for the Grants Management Offices to focus on the most effective outcomes for each program and how to provide high-quality support to grantees; and,
  - Aligning the technical assistance occurring across OESE, including with our external partners, to provide coordinated assistance for States and grantees with the Program and Grantee Support Services Office.
